

1969 ANNUAL MEETING 1969

Members of the Services Bowling Club turned up in a large number for the annual meeting which was held last Thursday night.

Mr. F. Spring occupied the chair and welcomed all members. Before proceeding with the business of the meeting, he asked all members for a brief silence for two members who had passed on during the year — J. Ferguson and I. Davis.

The president reported that the Club had a very successful year, and he thanked the committee and members for their support; also the Whinray family, Nixon Bros., J. Izon for trophies they had donated, and which had created a great amount of interest in the club. He also thanked the Manager and Mrs. Adlington and the ladies who assisted in the catering for afternoon teas during functions and on pennant days.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Mr. W. Nixon took the chair for the election of officers for the 1969/70 season, and the result was as follows:— President, Mr. F. Spring (re-elected), vice-presidents, Messrs. L. Wood and R. Adlington; secretary, Mr. L. Skehan; treasurer, Mr. D. Stewart. Fourteen nominations were received for the Committee of ten, the following were elected: Messrs. J. Roach, R. Maclean, J. Rowland, J. Skehan, K. Arthur, L. Farrell, R. Thomas, J. Beveridge, R. Tait and W. Humphrey.

It was decided to again enter pennant teams in the competition this season.

At the conclusion of the meeting, all members enjoyed a delicious supper supplied by the Corowa United Servicemen's Club. This was appreciated and thanks were extended to the Club for all they do for the Bowling Club members.

UPSURGE OF INTEREST IN CONSERVATION BANKS

There has been an upsurge in interest in banking systems following heavy autumn rains, Albury Soil Conservationist, Mr. Tom Swadling, said yesterday.

Mr. Swadling said that following damage to fallow local farmers had been quick to enquire about protection for their cropping lands.
