

SERVICES BOWLING NOTES

Our efforts for the first game of pennant after the break resulted in a 4-6 against although two rinks won the margin was a bit too big R. Adlington d D. Davies, R. Maclean d J. Wood and D. Stewart went down to W. Ward next Saturday we meet Tungamah at home so we are looking for a 10-0 win.

The first game of night bowls last Thursday proved very good the winning pair M. Limbereth and J. Nixon (little) the night bowls will be on again Tuesday night start 7.45 p.m. names in by 6 p.m.

On Sunday we had a full green for Legacy Day but it was spoiled by rain in the afternoon and play had to be called off so the winners were decided by placing all rinks skipper in the hat and the lucky draw resulted in C. Gordon, L. Gordon, H. Jackson, J. Taylor and C. Richards rink from Oaklands runner up.

Veterans please take note that the date has been altered it will be played on Tuesday, 14th February, so come along for another good day the age limit is 60 and over.

A reminder about the Tournament on A.N.A. weekend. Rinks Saturday, 28th, Triples, Sunday, 29th, Triples, Monday 30th, a list is on the board in the club.

Next Sunday open pairs will be on so come along and get your names in good trophies.

SERVICES BOWLING NOTES

Bowlers enjoyed a very pleasant night on Tuesday, January 24, a full green turned up, but only two pairs won all three games.

In the play-off, M. Limbereth and W. Humphrey won from J. Beveridge and J. Skehan.

Last weekend our annual tournament took place, and it was most successful. Visitors from a number of clubs, were present, including a party of 12 from Brighton who have been coming up for a few years. The green, they said, was the best they had played on this season.

Saturday's rinks resulted in three teams winning three games. The winners were P. Smith, R. Wilson, C. Gordon and S. Jobe with W. Thomas, J. Nixon (big), T. Hogg and B. Strachan runners-up.

In Sunday's triples, again three won all games. Ted Dawson, Tom Houlihan and Vic. Warrell won from G. Tyrrell, J. Skehan and J. Roach.

In Monday's triples, four triples won their three games, C. Smith (Moir), J. Whyte (Corowa), V. Carroll (Corowa), R. Adlington. In the play-off Whyte defeated Carroll and Adlington won from Smith. The final resulted in M. Witherden, J. Roach and R. Adlington defeating J. Nixon (big), T. Hogg and J. Whyte.

So concluded a very good three days' bowling. Each evening the president made a presentation of trophies, congratulating winners and thanking all who took part in making the tournament a success, with special thanks to R. Adlington and for his assistance in the running of the bowls.

Next Sunday, February 5, is B grade day, so get your name in so that the draw can be arranged.

Tuesday, February 15, is Veteran's Day, there are a few more rinks required.

Don't forget next Tuesday night, February 7, for the pairs. Start at 7.45 p.m. This will be a "chook" night for the winners.

SERVICES BOWLING CLUB NOTES

Last Saturday, September 24, the opening of the greens for the 1966-67 season was away to a good start, with a good day and good greens for the first game for the season.

Twelve clubs in the Ovens and Murray Association, were represented including: Wodonga, Mulwala Services, Benalla, Border Golf, Ovens, Wangaratta, Chiltern, Corowa, Rutherglen, Albury Services, Beechworth and Moira. Rand, which had accepted the invitation, cancelled it during the morning.

The president, Mr Fred Spring, welcomed all visitors and locals and wished them a happy and good day's bowling, and asked the visitors to convey to their clubs, best wishes for a good bowling season.

After three games, only two rinks had won all three games, in the play-off. A. Lee, L. Wood (Corowa), J. Dean and R. Stanton (Rutherglen) defeated Brian Sharp, D. Davies (Corowa), Ted Wells and L. McLachlan (Beechworth).

Now that the start has been, made, the greens will be open on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and at the weekend. So come along and have a roll.

There will be a programme for fixtures during the year.

A reminder is given to players wishing to play pennant, to get their names on the board, so that the selectors can get on with the job and sort out the teams.

SERVICES BOWLING NOTES

Our pennant result was a little brighter at the weekend, only one rink won, but the others only lost by three, result 6-4.

R. Adlington lost to R. Saunders 23-29, D. Stewart lost to T. Haebick 23-35 and R. Maclean won 27 to 16 against V. Barnes.

Next weekend is our Tournament, so get your entries in early. Saturday 28th rinks (half day). Sunday 29th. Triples start 10.30 a.m. Luncheon arrangements have been made.

Sunday, February 5, is "B Grade Day" and "Veteran's Day" on 14th February.

Pairs will be played on Tuesday night, so bring along any new bowlers wanting a game, play starts at 7.45 p.m.

Last Tuesday night a full green turned up and only two pairs won all three games.

In the play off J. Beveridge, J. Skehan were defeated by M. Limbereth and W. Humphrey.

Make a full green tonight (Tuesday).
