

WALLY NIXON RE-ELECTED FOR SECOND TERM

There was a good attendance for the annual meeting of the Services Bowling Club when Wally Nixon was re-elected for his second term as president.

RSL Club president, Jack Bartlett, took the chair for election of office-bearers for the 1975-76 season: President, W. Nixon; vice-presidents, J. Dennis, R. Thomas; secretary, R. Bourke; committee, J. Donoghue, J. Rowland, K. Sendy, W. Sorensen, J. Hetherington, R. Browne, R. Bourke Jnr.

Former secretary, Leo Farrell, who has done a tremendous job over the past four years, did not seek re-election. Greenkeeper Joe Rowlands reported that a timber plinth was to be put around the green and the surface levelled during the off season.

The Services Club would again field a pennant team in O. & M. Second Division and also, if enough bowlers were available, a team would be entered in the triples pennant which is to start before Christmas.

President Wally then congratulated all club champions and presented them with their trophies.

A Grade Champion: J. Rogers; runner-up, J. Beveridge.

B Grade Champion: L. Willett; runner-up, J. Spence.

Pairs Champions: R. Browne and R. Jones; runner-up, J. Mitchell and J. Spence.

Triples Champions: W. Ward, V. Evans, W. Roach; runners-up, G. Nixon, R. Nesbitt, T. Emerson.

LADIES BOWLS

All interested ladies are asked to be at the club on Monday night next (26th) at 8 p.m. so that a firm decision can be reached regarding the formation of a ladies bowling club.

TRIPLES SHIELD PRESENTATION

The presentation of the Jack Dennis Shield to the winners of the triples pennant will be made at Oaklands Hall on Saturday night, May 24, at 8 p.m. A good representation from the club is requested so place names on notice board all those wishing to go.

Bowls season opens at Services

The start of the bowling season began on Sunday when the Services Bowling Club held its opening day fixture.

Visitors came from Jerilderie, Rutherglen, Chiltern, Myrtleford, Oaklands and Corowa for the opening.

President of the RSL Club Ltd., Mr Jack Bartlett, welcomed the visitors and officially opened the greens.

Two games of 12 ends were played and a team from Corowa club, K. Lovell, T. Pilkington, D. Walliss and Fred Piggin (skip) won from F. Eyers, A. Morris, K. Sendy and W. Nixon.

PENNANT PRACTICE

The following teams are requested to be at the Corowa Bowling Club next Saturday afternoon at 1.30 for pennant practice: W. Sorensen, R. Browne, R. Hall, W. Nixon; G. Northey, H. Fitzgibbon, J. Rowland, R. Thomas; R. Jones, J. Mitchell, A. Farrell

Farrell. Emergencies: R. Burt, N. McPherson, B. McCall.

TRIPLES PENNANT

All bowlers and intending players in the triples pennant are requested to be at bowling green on Sunday, October 5, at 2 p.m. for pennant practice.

Social bowls will be on for the ladies and a game will be organised.

Duty roster this week: R. Browne, J. Hetherington, L. Farrell.

Keep Sunday 12th in mind for president's day triples.

Corowa Services form ladies' bowls committee

On Monday evening, May 26, a meeting was held at the RSL to form and establish a ladies' bowls committee.

The meeting was well attended.

Office-bearers for the 1975-76 bowls season are: President, M. Buckley; vice-presidents, G. Sorensen and G. Sullivan; secretary, E. Mitchell; committee, M. Crawford, N. Dennis, B. Farrell, B. Bourke, R. Rowlands, E. Tillman, M. O'Bryan, M. Browne, B. McCall, Jean Jones.

Special thanks go to Mrs Iris Whitechurch for her most valuable assistance at this meeting.

BAD WEATHER WAS AGAINST GOOD BOWLING

The weather was certainly against good bowling, but Corowa Services did get their president's day fixture almost completed and a result was taken over two games.

The winners were M. King, R. Morley and N. McFarlane (s) from D. O'Donoghue, T. Kemna and W. Bryant Jnr. (s).

Teams to play Berrigan on Saturday: J. Dennis, B. Ward, L. Farrell; O. Doyle, B. McCall, R. Jones; J. Hetherington, C. Clark, J. Mitchell; D. Norman, R. Bourke Snr., J. Streets. Emerg.: F. Eyers, N. McPherson, R. Sullivan, J. Beveridge.

RAY MACLEAN MEMORIAL

A full green of bowlers gathered for the Ray Maclean Memorial triples on Sunday.

In opening proceedings, Vice-president Reg welcomed all bowlers and apologised for the absence of President Wally, who was representing the club in Albury. Reg spoke of the long years of service given to the club by the late Ray Maclean, during which he had held every official position rising to president.

Three games of triples was played with three 3-game winners to play off — Bill Ward, Bob Tait and Bill Bryant Jnr.

Bill Bryant defeated Bill Ward on the last end, and then beat Bob Tait's team to be winners on the day.

Winners were Albert Ash, Bruce Ash and Bill Bryant; runners-up K. McDonald, J. Fisher, R. Tait.

Vice-president Jack concluded the day's proceedings by calling on Trevor Maclean to present the trophies on behalf of the Maclean family.

SUNDAY MIXED

Next Sunday mixed bowls will be played so have names in by 12 noon and starting time is 2 p.m.

CHAMPIONSHIPS

The draw for both A and B grade singles is on the notice board and bowlers are reminded that the first round must be played by November 16.

Coming events this month are Club Triples and Diggers Day (triples) so organise teams for these games.

Duty roster: W. Sorensen, W. Nixon and R. Bourke Jnr.

SERVICES FAIL ON Show FAST GREEN

A' GRADE SINGLES

There are three bowlers left in the A grade singles. J. Street and R. Thomas must play to decide who meets J. Rogers in the final.

TRIPLES TOURNAMENT

The Services three-day triples tournament will be played over the long weekend. Bowlers are asked to organise their teams and list them on the sheets provided.

Services' bowling

The annual Services Bowling Club triples tournament was held over the long weekend, and gusty winds and showers tested the ability of the bowlers to the full.

Full greens of district bowlers took part and a very successful tournament was concluded on Monday evening.

Saturday's winners were Ted Mensforth, B. McKay and C. Adams from R. Nesbiss, D. Fraser and K.

Davis. Congratulations to Ted on his first tournament win as a skipper.

Sunday's game saw three finalists—Brighton, Rutherglen and Chiltern—with the Rutherglen team of Bob Gray, Les Jones and A. Hawking winning the final from R. Howes team from Chiltern.

Monday's game resulted in two teams winning all three games, Leo Farrel, Geoff Beer and Ken Sedy won the day from the Buckingham clan from Rutherglen—Til, Ted and George.

PENNANT

O. and M. pennant resumes next Saturday and the teams to play Yarrowonga are: R. Jones, H. Fitzgibbon, R. Browne, R. Thomas; B. Hodges, W. Sorensen, J. Mitchell, W. Nixon; J. Streets, K. Sedy, R. Hall, J. Rowland.

Emerg.: D. Norman, N. McPherson.

Teams to play Oaklands on Saturday are: F. Eyers, A. Gill, J. Mitchell; J. Donoghue, J. Hetherington, G. Northey; D. Norman, J. Dennis, J. Spence; B. Hodges, J. Streets, A. Farrell. Emerg.: B. McCall, N. McPherson, C. Clark.

LEGACY DAY

The Legacy Day triples game will be played on Sunday, and more teams are required to make a double fill.

Starting time is 10.30 a.m. so make up your triples and have a day out in support of the legacy cause.

Duty roster next week (Feb. 23 - March 2): R. Browne, L. Farrell, J. Heth-

Corowa Services' easy win

Corowa Services bowlers came back from Jerilderie with a 10-0, 87-65 win on Saturday and are looking forward to their last triples pennant game against Finley Black this week.

A. Farrell d J. Goldsack 5-17, J. Rowland d J. O'Connor 20-16, K. Sendy J. Roe 21-14, J. Streets J. McCormick 21-18. Teams to play Finley Black are: F. Eyers, B. McCall, J. Mitchell; B. Hodges, J. Dennis, A. Farrell; D. Norman, W. McPherson, R. Jones; J. Donoghue, J. Hetherington, A. Bratt.

Emergencies: W. Sorensen, J. Rowland.

NIXON TROPHY

On Sunday the Nixon Trophy was contested, and a good result to Joe Rowland, who is always prepared to give new bowlers a game, saw him beat Trevor Wilson's rink during the afternoon and win the final from Des Davies four.

Roly Whittaker, Bruce McCall, Jim Hetherington and Joe Rowland bowled very consistently all afternoon and deserved their win.

Runners-up were Big Jack Nixon, Dennis O'Donoghue, Hal McCleery and Des Davies.

SUNDAY MIXED

Mixed bowls will be played on Sunday starting at 2 p.m. Names in by 12 noon.

Thursday night games will continue while the weather holds.

Duty roster (March 22-29): J. Dennis, A. Farrell, R. Thomas.

Corowa Services down in last triples round

The last round of the triples pennant was played on Saturday and Corowa Services were able to stay rather close to Finley and went down 76-83 — a 4-6 loss.

R. Jones lost to L. McNamara 10-27, J. Mitchell d K. Andrews 33-8, O. Doyle d D. Donaldson 22-15, A. Farrell lost to E. Thomas 11-33.

The pennant team did not reach the finals, but have achieved a great deal in giving more bowlers competition which can only lead to improved performances next year.

SUNDAY MIXED

Mixed bowls will be played at 2 p.m. on Sunday and names must be in by 12 o'clock.

Duty roster, March 29 to April 5: W. Nixon, W. Sorensen, R. Burke Jnr.

Corowa Services lose challenge game

The challenge game of triples played on Saturday afternoon between the two local bowling clubs resulted in a win to Corowa (186) over Services (161).

At the afternoon tea break, one shot seperated the teams, but the boys from down under finished the better to win by 25 shots.

President Wally called on Keith Davis, on behalf of the Davis family, to present the Ike Davis trophy to President Bill. Trophies to the best visiting team went to Bill Seymour, Gordon Nixon and skipper Mick Witherden.

A repeat game will be played next Saturday afternoon at 1.30 p.m. at Corowa Bowling Club and all bowlers not able to play, please advise L. Farrell or R. Thomas. Bowlers not available last week will be put in a team if possible.

Duty roster, April 12-19: K. Sendy, J. Donoghue, J. Rowland.

Services club triples played last Saturday

The club triples, postponed from an earlier date, was played at Corowa Services on Saturday.

After three games only two teams won all games. In the play-off Bob Hall, J. Streets and J. Dennis won from J. Rowland, W. Roach and W. Mitchell.

On Sunday, mixed pairs was played and the winners were Wally Nixon and Rita Aitken.

Services Bowling Notes

PENNANT RESULTS

Our boys played Yarrawonga Red team on Saturday and just held enough lead to hold one shot after the Victorians scored 9 shots on the last end. The team gained the two points 75-74.

J. Rowland lost to M. Boag 23-24, R. Thomas won from B. Forge 32-23, W. Nixon lost to J. Sharp 20-27.

Next Saturday's pennant teams to play St James Red are: J. Street, K. Sendy, R. Hall, J. Rowland; D. Norman, H. Fitzgibbon, R. Browne, R. Thomas; B. Hodges, W. Sorenson, J. Mitchell, W. Nixon.

Triples teams to play Cobram at Corowa on Saturday are: J. Donoghue, B. McCall, G. Northey; F. Eyers, O. Doyle, A. Gill; C. Clarke, R. Jones, A. Farrell; J. Hetherington, N. McPherson, J. Dennis.

LEGACY DAY TRIPLES

Our Legacy Day feature this year will be played on Sunday, 22nd February and will be a double fill, with first fill to start at 10.30 a.m.

Bowlers please note this change of time and get your teams in, as many visiting teams are expected to enter.

Legacy Day triples has good roll-up

The Corowa Services annual Legacy Day Triples was held on Sunday last. A good roll-up in perfect weather produced a good day for Legacy.

Two three-game winners lined up for the play-off and an extra end was needed to separate the two teams, but "Jacko" White, Reg Thomas and "Needles" Fitzgibbon won through from "Matey" Rainbird, Gordon Nixon and Alf Lee.

President Wally gave the floor to Con Fanning, who represented Legacy, and Con thanked the club and bowls committee for their efforts in staging the day.

Wally and Con then presented the trophies. "Matey" Rainbird was the spider winner, so he had a good day.

'A' & 'B' GRADE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Jim Rogers and Jack Streets played the A grade final last week and a very close tussle took place. Jack went to an 8-2 lead early, but Jim came back to level at 13-all. The score was again level at 18, Jim crept away to lead 25-20. Jack came back to be down 25-24. Two threes to Jim gave him the break and the game and congratulations to both boys are in order.

In the B grade final Jim Spence, who was runner-up last year, proved too consistent for Geoff Northey to win the final.

THURSDAY NIGHT

Last Thursday night saw another good roll-up for triples, and Joe Rowland, B. Hodges and C. Forrest won from Bruce McCall, G. Naughtin and Jim Hetherington.

CHALLENGE GAME

A challenge has been issued by the Corowa Bowling Club to a game of night bowls between the two clubs, and this has been taken up by the committee and accepted. Keep this game in mind and the time and place will be advised.

TRIPLES PENNANT

Services teams travelled to Oaklands last Saturday and played well to win 8-2. Three out of four teams won.

Teams to play Berrigan on Saturday next: B. Hodges, N. McPherson, A. Farrell, C. Clarke, B. McCall, J. Spence; F. Eyers, A. Gill, J. Mitchell; J. Donoghue, J. Hetherington, J. Street. Cars leave club at 12.45 p.m.

O. & M. CHAMPIONSHIPS

Teams to play in the Ovens & Murray Championships next Saturday at 10 a.m. are:

PAIRS at Albury: L. Farrell and R. Thomas.

TRIPLES at Border Golf: K. Sendy, R. Browne and J. Rowland.

FOURS at Corowa: H. Fitzgibbon, W. Sorenson, R. Hall and W. Nixon.

Duty roster: R. Browne, L. Farrell and J. Hetherington.
